Bruno Frery joins Elior as Group Head of Employee Relations

The Elior Group – the third largest player in the European contracted foodservice and related services market – is pleased to announce that it has appointed Bruno Frery as Group Head of Employee Relations.

Aged 50, Bruno holds a degree from Lyon 3 University's Institut d'Études du Travail et de la Sécurité Sociale (IETSS) and has spent his entire career working in the field of Human Resources and Employee Relations. After graduating, Bruno became a corporate consultant before taking up positions in the industrial sector with Johns Manville and Morgan, as Head of site personnel, Human Resources Director for a subsidiary, and then Head of Human Resources, France. He subsequently became Head of Human Resources at Papeteries Canson and then Head of Employee Relations at the Arjowiggins group.

Working alongside Agnès Bureau-Mirat, Human Resources Director of the Elior Group and the Contract Catering business, Bruno will be responsible for co-ordinating employee relations policies within the Group and monitoring related developments, as well as managing relations and negotiations with employee representatives.

About Elior

Founded in 1991, Elior ranks third in the European contracted foodservice and related services market, holding leading positions in Contract Catering & Facilities Management and Concession Catering & Travel Retail. In 2007/2008, the Group generated revenue of €3.46 billion. Each day, Elior's 67,500 employees serve 2.9 million guests at 14,000 restaurants and outlets in 14 countries. Elior is active in the Business & Industry, Education, and Healthcare & Seniors sectors, as well as in travel (airports, railway stations and motorways), and leisure & culture (museums and exhibition centres). As a socially responsible enterprise, Elior signed up to the United Nations Global Compact in 2004. The Group takes special care to provide nutritionally balanced meals to guests, limit the environmental impact of its operations and purchases, and support employee integration and training.
