

Paris, 23th January 2008

Appointments within the Elior group

Elior, the third largest company in Contracted Food and related services in Europe has announced the appointment of Bertrand Lozé as Managing director of the Concession catering branch. He will report to Jacques Roux, Managing Director for Group Operations. Bertrand Lozé, 56, is a graduate of the Institut d'Etudes Politiques (Institute of Political Science) in Paris and holds a post-graduate diploma in economics. He has spent his career in the real estate sector with the Groupe SefriCime and in the oil industry with Shell both in France and overseas. He joined the Elior group in 2000 as Managing Director of the French Motorways Division.

Alain Clévy has been appointed Managing director of the French Motorways Division, part of the Concession branch. Alain Clévy, 48, is a graduate of the Ecole Centrale Engineering School in Paris and the Institut du Contrôle de Gestion (Institute of Management Control). He began his career with the RATP, where he held various operational management positions in public transport activities, before joining the SCETA group as the Carians Nord-Pas-de-Calais Area Manager. He joined Elior in 1993 as the Local Authorities Contract Manager and then moved on to "Businesses and Public Institutions" Operations in the Business and Industry Division.

Jean-François Camarty, Managing director of the Town and Transport Division, has joined Elior's Concession branch.

About Elior

Founded in 1991, Elior ranks third in the European contracted foodservice and related services market. The Group, which recorded sales of €3.25 billion in 2007, holds major positions in Contract Catering & Facilities Management and Concession Catering & Travel Retail. Its 63,000 employees serve 2.8 million customers a day in 13,500 restaurants and outlets located in 15 countries. Elior is active in the Business & Industry, Education, Healthcare & Senior sectors, as well as in the world of travel (airports, railway stations, motorways) and leisure & culture (museums, exhibition centres). Elior, which has been a member of the United Nations' Global Compact since 2004, is a responsible organisation. The Group pays particular attention to healthy eating, the impact of its activities and supplies on the environment, and the integration and training of its employees. For further information : www.elior.com

Contacts:

Carla Sauvet – Media Relations Manager

Tel: + 33 (0)1 40 19 47 37 Fax: 47 12

carla.sauvet@elior.com